Welcome to the Deaf Herald

In this issue, we'll give information on the Melbourne Polytechnic MOU, and how this will lead to more collaboration between both organisations. We will also share how you can become a stallholder at Deaf Festival Sydney, and provide updates for seniors, including the NSLP Roadshow and the South Australia Ageing Well Information Session.

Additionally, we'll highlight new courses for Deaf adults in Queensland and New South Wales, introduce upcoming dates for Auslan Storytime, and give you a behind-the-scenes look at the Lego Learners Program for Deaf children. We'll also share details about the upcoming Family Mentor Program event.

Join us as we celebrate the great initiatives within our vibrant community!

Deaf Connect and Melbourne Polytechnic MOU Announced

Deaf Connect is pleased to announce the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with Melbourne Polytechnic which paves the way for enhanced collaboration between the two organisations across a range of key strategic focus areas.
